1 A RESOLUTION supporting the 200+ years of Judeo-Christian tradition
2 and its open expression in the U.S. Military.

3 WHEREAS, American history demonstrates the importance of open 4 and unrestricted religious expression in the military, beginning with 5 General George Washington even before the American founding and then 6 continuing unabated thereafter; and

7 WHEREAS, The historical and constitutional emphasis on securing 8 the rights of conscience and religious expression are for all citizens and 9 does not exclude those in the military; and

10 WHEREAS, There is a recent documented trend of increasing hostility 11 from special interests towards religious expressions by military service 12 members and of restrictions on military chaplains, especially toward 13 those of the Judeo-Christian tradition; and

14 WHEREAS, The Judeo-Christian tradition has been, and continues to 15 be, the majority religion in the U.S.A. and its military; and

16 WHEREAS, American history has had a two-century policy of 17 friendliness to and acceptance of faith and religious expression in the 18 military, including its direct support through a professional chaplaincy; 19 and

20 WHEREAS, The purpose of government is to protect the inalienable 21 rights of every individual, including those in the military; the rights of 22 conscience and religious expression are among those rights which 23 government has a fundamental duty to protect, rather than infringe upon:
24 Now, therefore,
