

Division of Emergency Management—Land Transfer; SB 28

SB 28 authorizes the Division of Emergency Management, Adjutant General's Department, to accept from the federal government a transfer of land in Saline County. The tract of land includes Crisis City, a 153-acre training complex located eight miles southwest of Salina. (The Crisis City facility hosts training exercises for emergency responders and support agencies.)