FORTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 15, 2016, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Edmonds and Goico were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Delinda Jeronimo, Children's Pastor, Wanamaker Woods Church of the Nazarene, Topeka:

Lord,

We come to you today humbled in your presence, thankful for the beauty of your creation in the blooming trees, the subtle tint of green sprouting all over our city, the pops of color in the spring flowers rising from the ground and the morning cantatas sung by the birds. We are thankful for safety in our travel to and from work, for our health and the many, many blessings you have poured upon us each and every day. May we never take for granted each and every gift from the seemingly small to the obviously large.

We give this day to you, from the first morning breath to the last waking blink, may you guide and direct in all actions and reactions, thoughts and words, discussions and decisions upon us today. May you be ever at the center of our thoughts as we make decisions today that will affect your people. Thank you for the calling to be leaders and may we be faithful to that call, giving you the praise, honor and glory in all we say and do.

We pray all these things in “the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to Your (his) will, You (he) hear(s) us.” 1 John 5:14. So we ask these things Father, according to your good, pleasing and perfect will. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hibbard.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Read are spread upon the Journal:

The citizens of Fort Scott wished to honor the significant sacrifices made by nearly 7,000 freedom fighters from the War on Terror in Iraq and Afghanistan by committing to raise $15,000 for an all-terrain track chair for a seriously wounded veteran of that war.

All-terrain track chairs enable some of the most seriously wounded to reduce the level of post-traumatic stress, depression, and suicide; by enabling them to regain their role as family breadwinner – (especially in farming and ranching) – and restoring the therapeutic value of outdoor recreation.

The generosity of the Fort Scott community has been proven by exceeding their goal through raising $17,000 to gift a track chair with sporting accessories and trailer to a local wounded hero.

Now, join me in commending: The Fort Scott Symbols of Sacrifice Tribute Fund organizers (Anne Emerson, Jim Scott, Jill Warford, and the Fort Scott National Historic Site Superintendent, Betty Boyko), The City of Fort Scott, and the generosity of the Fort Scott residents who challenge other Kansas counties and cities to enrich the lives of other seriously wounded Kansas heroes through providing track chairs.

Rep. Read presented House certificates to the guests.

REFERENCE OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill was referred to committee as indicated:

Appropriations: HB 2734.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Corbet, HR 6050, by Rep. Corbet, as follows, was introduced and adopted.

HR 6050 – A RESOLUTION commemorating the 75th Birthday of M&M'S® Brand Chocolate Candies in the State of Kansas and designating the month of March as M&M'S® Brand Chocolate Candies Month.

WHEREAS, It is fitting that the Kansas Legislature should recognize Mars, Incorporated, whose dedicated service has significantly contributed to the economic vitality of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, In the State of Kansas, Mars proudly produces M&M'S® candies and SNICKERS® bars; and

WHEREAS, The State of Kansas is home to the Mars Chocolate Topeka factory and seven BANFIELD® Pet Hospitals, employing over 350 Associates statewide; and

WHEREAS, The principle of mutuality is a Mars business model for success in Kansas. Mars has supported Topeka's community development through over $230,000 in donations to Downtown Topeka's development and partnerships with Habitat for Humanity, Harvesters, Sheltered Living and Boo-It Downtown; and

WHEREAS, M&M'S® Brand Chocolate Candies will continue to be the people's chocolate. Since March 3, 1941, fans have made M&M'S® the most popular Chocolate Candy on earth that "melts in your mouth, not in your hands"; and

WHEREAS, Mars produced the first M&M'S® in 1941, and later, exclusively, as military rations during World War II. Since then, the bite-sized pieces of chocolate in a colorful candy shell have become instantly recognizable all over the globe; and

WHEREAS, For the second year, the M&M'S® Brand will partner with NBC and Comic Relief as a title sponsor to raise awareness and money for the Red Nose Day Fund, an organization that helps to lift children out of poverty. In 2015, the M&M'S® Brand donated more than $1.3 million to Red Nose Day charities; and

WHEREAS, In keeping with its legacy as a supporter of the military, Mars will donate $750,000 worth of product to Operation Gratitude for inclusion in military care packages: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we hereby designate the month of March as M&M'S® Brand Chocolate Candies Month in commemoration of this product's 75 years of excellence worldwide and the contributions of Mars, Incorporated, to the State of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send four enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Corbet.

Rep. Corbet invited the members of the Shawnee County delegation to join him at the well.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Corbet are spread upon the Journal:

Last week you had M&M's on your desk in honor of the 75th Anniversary of M&M's. Mars employees over 350 people in the state of Kansas. Their factory in Topeka produces peanut M&M's and Snickers bars. They are now undergoing a $100 million expansion and will soon be making a new candy bar that has not been announced yet. They are helping to organize a Chocolate Festival in downtown Topeka on September 24...so mark your calendar. They are a strong part of the Kansas community. We are grateful to have Mars in our state and glad to celebrate with them on their 75th Anniversary of M&M's.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS

The motion of Rep. Rubin to change the sequence of General Orders under House Rule 1503(a) to consider SB 415 as the first item of business was ruled out of order. The bill had been referred by the Speaker from the Committee of the Whole to the Committee on Calendar and Printing on March 14, 2016. Rep. Rubin raised a point of order that the reference to committee violated House Rule 2306 and asked for a ruling from the Rules Committee. The point of order was denied by the Rules Chairman for two reasons. First, a challenge must be made at the time the event occurs. In this instance, no challenge was offered when the change of reference was announced on March 14. Second, it was determined that the Speaker was within his authority under House Rule 1507 to refer SB 415 to an exempt committee prior to the upcoming second house consideration deadline under the Joint Rules of the House and Senate.

CONSENT CALENDAR

No objection was made to Sub SB 103 appearing on the Consent Calendar for the second day.
