Lord God in Heaven,
Thank You for another opportunity to make the most of a new and beautiful day.
Rekindle the call of these leaders to serve.
Renew their faith to make a difference for others.
Remind them of the suffering and the vulnerable.
Ready them to withstand the criticism
when they know what is right before You.
Reaffirm them when they are characterized by half-truths and attributed with motives that are beneath them.
Reinforce them with personal integrity and compassion.
Reignite them with a determination that comes from Your grace and honor.
In Your Son's Name I pray,
Amen.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Houston are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Finney and I are here today with a two-fold purpose: One is to celebrate and recognize International Children's Book Day, which is an annual event held on April 2: which is also the birth date of Hans Christian Andersen, the famous author who wrote some classic fairytales such as the "Little Mermaid," "The Snow Queen," "The Ugly Duckling," "The Nightingale" and many more. The celebration is sponsored by the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) with the goal to "inspire a love of reading and to call attention to children's books."

I think we would all agree that books open new worlds of possibilities for children and taking the time and making the investment into our children's education, when they are young, helps them to be more prepared for what the future will bring to them.

Also, we want to welcome and congratulate Storytime Village, Inc., who since 2009; with the support of parents and the community, are fostering a lifelong love of reading in underserved Kansas children from birth to age 8." Standing on the ancient African proverb "it takes a village to raise a child", they strive to give every child in Kansas, regardless of their socioeconomic background, race, and/or gender the opportunity for a better future through literacy.

Since its inception in 2009, Storytime Village has been dedicated to helping the youngest in our communities thrive through partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement fostered through reading, and better access to books.

We would ask that you join us in congratulating Ms. Prisca Barnes-Founder and CEO, staff and supporters of Storytime Village, Inc. for their great efforts in reaching out to our communities and helping children through this great program.

Rep. Houston presented them with a House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks of Rep. Waymaster:

The U.S. Senate designated April as Parkinson's Awareness Month for the first time on March 26th, 2010 when S. Res. 474 was passed by unanimous consent.

Today, for the fourth consecutive year, we join with our nation and other states in showing our support of those who suffer from Parkinson's Disease. Committed to a cure, we stand with patients, family members, friends, advocates and caregivers. I'm honored to be co-sponsoring this year's proclamation with Rep. Claeys, Rep. Gonzalez, and Rep. DeGraaf, our friend and colleague who has Parkinson's disease. I'm also pleased to welcome back Rep. Dannebohm, our former colleague, whose time serving in this chamber was cut short due to the affect the disease had on him.

Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month was first proclaimed by the Kansas House in 2013 when it was sponsored by Representative Ronald Ryckman (R-Meade). In 2014, the resolution was once again sponsored by Ryckman and co-sponsored by Representative Marshall Christmann (R-Lyons). In 2015, the resolution was co-sponsored by Representative Fred Patton (R-Topeka) and Representative Gail Finney (D-Wichita).

Parkinson's disease is a progressive neurological disorder and symptoms can vary from person to person. Although promising research is being conducted, there is currently no cure for or definitive cause of Parkinson's disease.

As many as 1 million Americans have the disease. In 2005, an estimated 5,500 Kansans suffered from Parkinson's Disease. By 2014, that number had increased to an estimated 14,000.

So as we recognize April as Parkinson's Awareness Month, we are mindful of those who struggle and pledge our support and encouragement to them in their fight against this terrible disease.

Remarks of Rep. Claeys:

Joining us here on the floor today are ...

- Lisa Reser from Ellinwood, Kansas. Mrs. Reser is a fifth grade teacher suffering from Parkinson's Disease. Though she faces the daily challenges of living with the disease, from the time she started her career as a child care provider to the present day as an educator, Lisa has been committed to the well being of Kansas children for more than 25 years. The disease forced her to retire but she refuses to let it take away her positive spirit. She, like so many who suffer, desire increased awareness and a cure. Lisa is accompanied by her husband, Scott, her daughters Ashley and Emily, and her grandchildren Harper, Hudson, Kobe, and Kade.

• Michelle Haub, Michelle is the co-creator and Director of the Parkinson's Program of Manhattan at Meadowlark Hills in Manhattan, KS. Here she leads an active program for those affected by PD with exercise & voice classes, education meetings, social activities, community outreach and fundraising. In 2014, the Parkinson's Program of Manhattan received the Excellence in Social Accountability Award from LeadingAge Kansas. Michelle is also an active volunteer as she was previously the Vice President for Professional Practices, a Committee Chair, and is the current Past President and on the Legislative Task Force for KSHA. Accompanying Michelle are Matthew Schindler, a Parkinson's patient and his wife, Susan.

• Representative J. Basil Dannebohm. In the summer of 2012, Dannebohm was diagnosed with Young Onset Parkinson's Disease. Since that time, he has been an advocate for Parkinson's Disease research, treatment and awareness. Representative Dannebohm travels across the country promoting awareness and offering encouragement to his fellow patients. His message has inspired numerous Parkinson's patients to live each day to the fullest. He has been the driving force each year behind this proclamation. Accompanying Representative Dannebohm is Courtney Blankenship. Miss Blankenship is currently the titleholder of Miss Yellow Brick Road and will compete this summer in the Miss Kansas Pageant. Whether running in a 5K, participating in an Art Exhibition, or traveling to promote Parkinson's awareness, Representative Dannebohm has always been able to rely on Courtney and her pageant sisters to assist in advancing the cause.

Will all of you join me in giving encouragement to these individuals, their loved ones and all Kansas with Parkinson's disease? Thank you.

Remarks of Rep. DeGraaf:

Today as we pause to recognize and learn more about those who struggle with Parkinson Disease, I want to express my personal thanks to each of you for your support and patience as I have worked through my need for back surgery and then the issues surrounding my recent Parkinson's disease (PD) diagnosis.

Early diagnosis of PD is important because there are new medicines and strategies to help people with PD mitigate their symptoms. If it had not been for my back challenges, it may have been another five or even ten years before I had diagnoses.

While each of us with Parkinson has a different journey, there are a number of similarities. On your desk is a handout that lists most of the common challenges. As I look back, if I had know the signs, the first indicator I received was my diminished sense of smell.

It was about a year ago today that I first learned I might have Parkinson's. Initially I felt devastated and then I began to learn about all the support that is available. I want to publicly thank Representative Basil Dannebohm, who took my wife and me to a national Parkinson's conference the day after my diagnosis, and Michelle Haub, who provides outstanding support programs through Meadowlark Hills, in Manhattan, Kansas. I also want to thank my wife, Karen, all the spouses, family members, and various caregivers that lovingly, with great patience and longsuffering, help us cope and know that we are not alone!

Remarks of Rep. Gonzalez:

Thank you House of Representatives for taking the time to become aware of Parkinson's disease. I was asked to share the effects of Parkinson's on me personally. I was diagnosed in 2011. I always proud of my handwriting, but it now it starts with big letters and they get smaller. I still enjoy life and being able to have fun with my grandkids. I walk slower, so don't run over me in the hallways. I again thank you all for your awareness of Parkinson's disease.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I VOTE NO ON SB 338. KANSAS ALREADY HAS SUFFICIENT TOOLS IN PLACE TO ADDRESS BLIGHT. SB 338 circumvents our current eminent domain statutes by redefining “abandoned property” and by allowing our local governments to expeditiously confiscate, seize or destroy law abiding citizens' private property without compensation, adequate notice, and a legal property title. This is an egregious overreach that deprives some citizens of their private property rights without sufficient due process and it will cause irreparable harm to our most vulnerable citizens that do not have the resources to protect their property. — GAIL FINNEY, BRODERICK HENDERSON, RODERICK HOUSTON, BEN SCOTT, VALDENIA WINN, JOHN CARMICHAEL, KASHA KELLEY, BILL SUTTON, JERRY LUNN, CHARLES MACHEERS
