

My name is Alisha Wurtz and I am working on getting my diploma through New Directions Learning Academy and I am against the bill to cut the funding for NDLA and schools like it because without them I would not be able to meet my goal and get my diploma it is a honor that I have a second chance to get my diploma so please don't take that away from everyone over 18 who wants a second chance to get a high school diploma