Re: HB 2237

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am writing with a concern that Public Notices need to be published by a neutral party. Newspapers provide a separation from government and are a reliable source for official documentation. They are a permanent record that can not be manipulated, hacked or physically changed and is guaranteed by the editor as fact.

Newspaper publications provide verifiable public record through sworn affidavits of publications that have been accepted for decades as adequate notice in a court of law.

Access to the information is not as readily available on the internet and in our community.

Public Notices should remain in the local newspapers to ensure they are legal and not bogus.
