

BACKGROUND

Dr. Dan Deines

1990 Co-Coordinator of Accounting Education Change Commission Grant at KSU – Profession driven change: writing, teamwork, presentations, critical thinking, applied research

AICPA Accounting Careers Subcommittee – Chair for 3 years

President of the Kansas Society of CPAs

AICPA Precertification Education Executive Committee - oversees CPA exam and educational preparation for the exam.

Pathways Commission: Joint effort of academics and accounting practitioners to improve the educational supply chain for the accounting profession – 50% of practicing CPAs will retire in the next 5 years.

ACCOUNTING PILOT AND BRIDGE PROJECT at KSU – National effort to improve the accounting education supply chain by creating college level accounting course in high school (AP Accounting). 900+ Teachers trained in 42 states.

Kansas State University's new accounting curriculum that can graduate students with MACC in 4 ½ years (that includes internships) that includes CPA exam prep course upon completion of graduate degree.