Gannon v. State Timeline

January 2010-Present

JANUARY 11, 2013 DECEMBER 30, 2014 Three-judge panel issues opinion Three-iudge panel finding the state violated Art. 6 of the issues opinion finding that under Kansas Constitution by inadequately funding school districts and there was the Rose factors, an unconstitutional wealth-based the Kansas K-12 disparity among school districts. public education financing system does not satisfy the adequacy JANUARY 2010 NOVEMBER 2, 2010 JUNE 2012 FEBRUARY 2013 OCTOBER 2013 MAY 1, 2014 requirement of Art. Montoy plaintiffs file The state files an Kansas Supreme 6 of the Kansas Plaintiff school districts Trial begins. Heard Senate Substitute Constitution, Case motion to reopen file a new lawsuit by a three-judge appeal with the Court hears oral for HB 2506 Montoy. The motion is not dismissed. district court panel against the state Kansas Supreme arguments. becomes law. was denied. (Gannon v. State). in Shawnee County Court. The plaintiff files a cross-appeal. JUNE 11, 2014 Three-judge panel determined that JUNE 17, 2010 Senate Substitute for HB 2506 fully Plaintiff school districts file funded capital outlay and supplemental a notice of claims pursuant general state aid. This was sufficient to K.S.A. 72-64b02. to meet the equity component test. It stated no further action was necessary at that time, but the Panel did not dismiss the issue of equity. MARCH 7, 2014 Kansas Supreme Court issues opinion finding that Art. 6 of the Kansas constitutions contains adequacy and equity components. Remands to district court to determine constitutionality based on the Rose standards established by the Supreme Court.