Possible bill introductions

Chairperson Abrams opened the meeting and asked if Senate members had bill introductions.

Senator Arpke moved and Senator Fitzgerald seconded a motion that the Senate committee sponsor a bill regarding curriculum on winter celebrations. The motion passed.

Chairperson Abrams made announcements affecting members of both the House and Senate committees.

Chairperson Highland asked House Members if there were any bill introductions; there were none.

Presentation by:

Chairperson Abrams invited Dr. Randy Watson to the podium and asked him to introduce State Board of Education members seated in the audience. Dr. Watson introduced Jim McNiece, State Board Chairman, who introduced the following State Board members: Jim Porter, Kathy Busch, Janet Waugh, Deena Horst, Sally Cauble and Ken Willard.

Mr. McNiece referred to the year-long effort made by Dr. Watson and Deputy Commissioner Brad Neuenswander in touring the state to gather information to be used in creating a new vision for education in Kansas. The State Board of Education has unanimously adopted this new vision. Mr. McNiece then asked Dr. Watson to share the new vision with the joint committees. \(Attachment 1\)
