

Continuation of Exceptions to the Kansas Open Records Act; HB 2023

HB 2023 continues in existence the following exceptions to the Kansas Open Records Act (KORA):

- KSA 17-2036, concerning income tax return extension applications submitted to the Secretary of State;
- KSA 40-5301, concerning records, data, and information of the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Compact;
- KSA 45-221(a)(45), concerning records, which, if disclosed, would pose a substantial likelihood of revealing certain security measures;
- KSA 45-221(a)(46), concerning information and materials received by a county Register of Deeds from military discharge papers;
- KSA 45-221(a)(49), concerning an individual's contact information given to a public agency to receive widely distributed agency notifications or communications;
- KSA 48-16a10, concerning information obtained pursuant to the Radon Certification Law;
- KSA 58-4616, concerning certain records retained by the unit owner association of a common interest community;
- KSA 60-3351, concerning self-evaluative audit documents submitted to and in the possession of the Insurance Commissioner (the bill also would remove a July 1, 2015, sunset for language specifying self-evaluative audit documents are not subject to any disclosure or production under KORA);
- KSA 72-972a, concerning due process complaint notices filed under the Special Education for Exceptional Children Act;
- KSA 74-50,217, concerning the contents of forms completed pursuant to the Promoting Employment Across Kansas Act;
- KSA 74-99d05, concerning certain records of the Kansas Electric Transmission Authority, which, if disclosed, would be harmful to the competitive position of third parties or to the security of transmission facilities; and
- KSA 75-53,105, concerning criminal history record information obtained by the Secretary for Children and Families for the purpose of determining initial and continuing qualification for employment or participation in a program for the placement, safety, protection, or treatment of vulnerable children or adults.
