

Probate—Filing Requirements; SB 321

SB 321 removes from the statute allowing the filing of certain wills in court requirements that the decedent's probate estate contain no known real or personal property or that the value of the property be less than the total of all known demands. The requirements for the affidavit filed with the will are amended accordingly.