

Journal of the House

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, May 1, 2017, 2:00 p.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Bishop and Wilson were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Alford and DeGraaf were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Creator God,
 We stand before You today,
 grateful for the Spring Break we have just had.
 Although on this May Day – which is to celebrate Spring –
 we might be confused whether it was a Spring or Winter Break.
 Thank You for the safe travels of our representatives and bringing them back for the work that is before them.
 There are a couple of big issues
 that our leaders must face in the next few days.
 They are tough issues requiring tough decisions.
 I pray for a spirit of unity, collaboration and communication.
 And as Henry Ford once said,
 “coming together is a beginning;
 keeping together is progress;
 working together is success.”
 May it be so in this chamber.
 In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Rafie.
