RE: HB 2687 – Creating the adoption protection act

DATE: March 20, 2018

Chairman Barker and Members of the House Federal and State Affairs Committee,

My name is Joseph Molina and on behalf of the Kansas Bar Association (KBA) I provide this written testimony regarding HB 2687, creating the adoption protection act. The KBA does not consider this bill to be in the best interest of children, as such the KBA OPPOSES HB 2687.

It is well-established public policy in Kansas that the best interest of the child should be the most critical priority in any placement. KSA 38-2201 considers “the safety and welfare of a child to be paramount in all proceedings under this code”. The Legislature has recognized that the “best interest of the child” is crucial when evaluating child placement. HB 2687 fails to meet this basic standard.

Unfortunately, HB 2687 focuses more on the interest of the placement agency than on children in adoptive and/or foster settings. HB 2687 would allow a child in a foster care setting to remain in limbo when a safe caring home is available for placement. We cannot allow this scenario to play out in Kansas.

Furthermore, throughout Kansas, hundreds of children desperately need adoption/foster placement services. Last year it was reported that children stayed overnight in foster care contractor’s offices more than 100 times due to the lack of placement opportunities. HB 2687 could compound this issue by closing the door to otherwise safe and secure homes.

Our goal for these children is to find placement in safe, nurturing environments. These adoptive and/or foster homes should provide a stable and permanent setting to ensure the child receives proper care and attention. Stability and permanency should be paramount in adoptive and foster children's lives. The opportunity to serve, nurture and comfort these children should be open to all.

On behalf of the Kansas Bar Association, thank you for this opportunity to express the KBA's opposition to HB 2687.
