41 business consideration of motions and House resolutions offered on a 42 previous day. The motion shall be considered on the legislative day 43 following the day it is made.

1 (b) When a bill or resolution has been separately referred and is 2 adversely reported by the first committee of separate reference, a motion 3 to add the adversely reported bill or resolution to General Orders is not in 4 order, but a motion to move the adversely reported bill or resolution to 5 the next committee of separate reference may be made in the same 6 manner as the motion in subsection (a).

7 (c) Adoption of a motion under this Rule 1505 requires the 8 affirmative vote of 70 members of the House.

9 (d) If a motion under subsection (a) prevails, the words "Adversely

6 the debate shall not be affected by any order for the previous question or 7 that debate shall cease. Such member may occupy 20 minutes in closing 8 the debate after the previous question is ordered and may divide that time 9 with other members.

10 (d) While a member is carrying a measure, such member may yield 11 to another member for explanation of the measure, or for personal 12 explanation, or for a motion to adjourn without losing the privilege to 13 carry the measure for the remainder of their time except that such 14 member may not yield to any member who has already spoken twice on 15 such question on the same day.

37 considered section by section, and as each section is considered, 38 amendments from the floor are in order to that section. If the committee 39 report is not adopted, or if the committee has recommended no 40 amendments, the bill, without committee amendments, shall be 41 considered section by section, and as each section is considered, 42 amendments from the floor are in order to that section. After a section has 43 been once considered, no amendment thereto shall be in order until the

1 whole bill shall have been considered section by section. After the 2 original bill, together with standing committee amendments if any, has 3 been considered section by section, the chairperson shall announce, 4 "Amendments to the bill generally are in order," and amendments not 5 before offered may be made to any part of the bill. A motion that when 6 the committee arises it report a bill favorably, or report a bill favorably as 7 amended, shall not be in order until all other motions have been disposed 8 of, and such a motion shall not be offered as a substitute motion. A 9 motion to strike the enacting clause is in order at any stage until the final 10 vote is announced. The motion to strike the enacting clause may be 11 debated upon the merit of the proposition, and shall not be subject to 12 amendment or substitution. A roll call vote shall be taken upon a motion 13 to strike the enacting clause.

19 chairperson has announced that the next order of business is such bill or 20 resolution and has recognized a member to carry it. Either motion shall 21 require the vote of a majority of the members present for adoption.
22 Motions under this rule shall not be subject to debate.

23 Rule 1904. Motions to Refer Bills or Resolutions to a Committee 24 While in Committee of the Whole. When in the Committee of the 25 Whole, a motion may be made to refer a bill or resolution to a standing 26 committee only after the chairperson has announced that the next order of 27 business is such bill or resolution and has recognized a member to carry 28 it. Such motion shall require the vote of a majority of the members 29 present for adoption.

30 Rule 1905. Striking Bills and Resolutions from the Calendar
31 While in Committee of the Whole. (a) While in Committee of the 32 Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the calendar shall be in 33 order only after the chairperson has announced that the next order of 34 business is such bill or resolution and has recognized a member to carry 35 it.

36 (b) A motion to strike a bill from the calendar under this Rule 1905 37 (1) shall require a vote of a majority of the members present for adoption, 38 and (2) shall be subject to roll call in accordance with subsection (e) of 39 Rule 2507, but shall not be subject to a call of the House under Rule 40 2508.

43 or offer an amendment and "speak amendment" button to speak on a

1 pending amendment, and shall not proceed until recognized by the 2 chairperson of the Committee of the Whole.

3 Rule 1907. Rules Applicable. The same rules, except Rule 2508,
4 shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole as in the House, so far 5 as the same are applicable, except that the previous question and the 6 motion to lay on the table shall not apply.

7 Rule 1908. Rise and Report. A motion for the Committee of the 8 Whole to rise and report shall be in order at any stage, and shall be 9 decided without debate. When the Committee of the Whole has a bill 10 under consideration and rises without final action thereon, the bill shall 11 retain a place on General Orders.

12 Rule 1909. Effect of Recommendation of Committee of the Whole.
13 Bills recommended for passage and resolutions recommended for 14 adoption by the Committee of the Whole shall not be subject to 15 amendment or debate after the adoption by the House of the Committee 16 of the Whole report. When a bill or resolution is reported with the 17 recommendation that the enacting or resolving clause be stricken, and the 18 Committee of the Whole report is adopted by the House, the bill or 19 resolution shall be considered as killed and shall be stricken from the 20 calendar.

21 Rule 1910. Report of Committee of the Whole. When the report of 22 the Committee of the Whole recommends the passage of a bill or 23 adoption of a resolution, and the report is adopted by the House, such 24 bills and resolutions shall be considered as ordered to the order of 25 business Final Action. If the bill or resolution has been amended by the 26 Committee of the Whole it shall be reprinted.

27 ARTICLE 21. AMENDMENT OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

28 Rule 2101. Germaneness. Amendments to bills and resolutions shall 29 be germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. The principal test of 30 whether an amendment is germane shall be its relationship to the subject 31 of the bill or resolution, rather than to wording of the title thereof. The 32 amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the 33 substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, 34 must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the 35 same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of 36 this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and 37 appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount 38 of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any 39 appropriation bill.

40 Rule 2102. Form of Amendment Motions. Motions to amend bills 41 and resolutions shall specify the page and line number, as shown on the 42 printed bill or resolution, and shall be in writing on a form provided by 43 the House or a form substantially similar. A motion shall be out of order

1 unless the written motion is first delivered to the chief clerk. In the case 2 of amendment by substitute bill, motion shall be made to substitute a 3 written bill for the bill under consideration.

4 Rule 2103. Reading Amendments; General Rule. Motions to amend 5 bills and resolutions shall not require readings as for bills introduced, 6 except as otherwise provided in Rule 2107, but shall be subject to Rule 7 2306.

8 Rule 2104. Motions to Amend Motions. A motion to amend a motion 9 to amend a bill or resolution shall not be in order.

10 Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments. (a) When any motion to amend a 11 bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the 12 presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the 13 presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

14 (1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence
15 shall be indivisible;

16 (2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in 17 the motion to amend;

18 (3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the 19 remainder may stand entirely on their own; and 20 (4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 21 2110 shall be indivisible.

22 (b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, 23 the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a 24 ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, 25 the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

26 If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is 27 made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in 28 accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on 29 germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be 30 in order.

31 (c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the 32 member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying 33 the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

34 (d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with 35 the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection 36 (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, 37 or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on 38 how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except 39 that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice 40 chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a 41 rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of 42 subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

43 Rule 2106. Substitute Motions. No substitute motion to amend a bill

1 or resolution shall be in order.

2 Rule 2107. Subject Change by Senate. (a) When the Senate adopts 3 amendments to a House bill which materially changes its subject, upon 4 return of such bill to the House, it shall be read as provided for the 5 introduction of bills and be referred as provided in Rule 901.

6 (b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection
7 (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a 8 challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

9 Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a 10 motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one 11 proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another 12 proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor 13 shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent 14 motion to strike out and insert.

15 Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of 16 the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be 17 made a second time on the same legislative day.

18 Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. (a) 19 Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor 20 amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be 21 authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless 22 the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater 23 amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of 24 such appropriations bill.

25 (b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending 26 balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 27 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or 28 transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal 29 year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative 30 research department.

31 ARTICLE 23. PROCEDURAL MOTIONS

32 Rule 2301. Order of Motions. When a question is under 33 consideration, no motion shall be received except as specified under the 34 Rules of the House, which motions shall have precedence in the 35 following order:

- 36 (a) For adjournment of the House.
- 37 (b) For call of the House.
- 38 (c) To lay on the table.
- 39 (d) For the previous question.
- 40 (e) To postpone to a certain time.
- 41 (f) To commit to a standing committee.
- 42 (g) To commit to a select committee.
- 43 (h) To reject the adoption of reports of conference committees

1 coupled with the request for appointment of a new conference committee.

2 (i) To adopt the report of conference committees.

3 (j) To amend.

4 (k) To postpone indefinitely.

5 Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always 6 be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or 7 when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; 8 but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

9 Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take 10 precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No 11 motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on 12 the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision 13 to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the 14 prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for 15 reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any 16 subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous 17 consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the 18 introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for 19 reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating 20 the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to 21 debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the 22 motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one 23 minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the 24 affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the 25 action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final 26 action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which 27 the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A 28 motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the 29 time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of 30 the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon 31 the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

32 Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be:
33 "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall 34 preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous 35 question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, 36 the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The 37 main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other 38 matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall 39 first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate 40 or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the 41 previous question.

42 Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to 43 priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to 1 adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the 2 House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or 3 debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all 4 debate on the main question.

5 Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee 6 When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of 7 the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a

27 upon which a division of the assembly has been called. In the event that 28 the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by 30 such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, 31 with printed name and district number, by such member by 4:00 p.m.

32 upon the day the vote is taken or if the vote is taken subsequent to 3:30
33 p.m., within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, 34 shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 35 100 words.

16 (c) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any House
17 resolution to adopt, amend or revoke any rule of the House or to reject

40 secure absentees.

41 (b) Any member, who is directly interested in a question, may be 42 excused from voting, when there is a call of the House. The member, who 43 is requesting to be excused from voting, shall state the reasons therefor,

1 occupying not more than five minutes. The question on excusing such 2 member from voting shall be taken without debate and a 2/3 majority of 3 members present shall be necessary to excuse such member. If a member 4 refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute grounds
