

Journal of the Senate

FIFTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 4, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

All Knowing, Most Gracious, Most Loving God of Heaven and earth, we come before You today realizing that You have granted to us an abundance of mercy in that You have relieved us from some of the consequences of our unholy choices. You tell us in Lamentations 3:22-23, that Your love and mercies are new every day. Your grace toward us does not fail. Help us to love and serve others like You love and serve us.

In John 13, You provided a living example that we are to follow Jesus, as the authoritative and exalted leader of His disciples. He humbled Himself and showed us how to serve, how to care for people even when they're not in tune with you and resistant to what you're doing.

Knowing that Judas was opposed to Him and would betray Him, He still humbled Himself and served him; while at the same time He was serving others who supported Him. He washed the feet of His betrayer. The principle He puts forth is that the extent of our love, concern and service to others is not to be hindered, diminished or withheld just because they resist us, and we know who they are. Their feet need washing too!

So Lord, help us to love the unlovely; to serve and care for those who come against us. We're just trainees, and You want us to learn by doing. So, Lord, help us regard our opposition as training opportunities. And when we're struggling with the change that it may require just remind us to do like Michael Jackson said and look at the man in the mirror. Improvements are needed there as well.

By Your Spirit of love, mercy and graciousness, please motivate us to be more like You. I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.
