TWENTY-FIRST DAY

---

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 12, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 38 senators present.

Senators Hilderbrand and Masterson were excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, over 200 years ago, on February 12, 1809, You brought Abraham Lincoln into the world. Raised in a log cabin without many of the conveniences we enjoy today, You led him into becoming a well-respected, self-taught lawyer who would eventually become President.

And Lord, only a week after he was inaugurated, that blood filled civil war began due to the opposing and uncompromising positions regarding the issue of slavery. During this Black History Month, we're reminded that five days after the end of that war; after he had freed millions of slaves, on April 14th, 1865; his work on earth was done. And You allowed him to come home to You at the hands of his assassin, John Wilkes Booth.

We sometimes wonder, what's with a person like Lincoln, so sacrificially dedicated to the good of others...so devoted to making the world a better place? You led him to provide the answer in a speech on Feb. 22, 1862. He said "Without the assistance of the Divine Being...I cannot succeed. With that assistance I cannot fail." He went on to say "Trusting in Him Who can go with me, and remain..., and be everywhere for good, let us confidently hope that all will be well." Romans 8:28

Lord, You said through Your prophet Jeremiah, speaking to a people in 29:10-14, that even though they had fallen short as we all do, You would still bless them. Your words were, "I know the plans I have for You...plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." By faith, Master, help us hold on to Your Word, help us trust You with that same devotion and determination. I'm thanking You for Your faithfulness toward us. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.
