RE: Judicial Council’s Neutral Testimony on SB 157 – Written Only

The Judicial Council has not studied or taken a position on 2019 Senate Bill 157 and is therefore submitting this testimony as a neutral.

At the request of Representative Blaine Finch, the Judicial Council recently studied 2018 House Bill 2529, which would amend K.S.A. 23-3202 and create a presumption of equal, or nearly equal, parenting time. While Senate Bill 157 involves a different statute than was studied last year, the Family Law Advisory Committee’s report, which was approved by the Judicial Council on December 6, 2018, may be helpful to the House Judiciary Committee as it considers the bill. A copy of the report is attached.

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL
FAMILY LAW ADVISORY COMMITTEE
December 6, 2018

In May 2018, Representative Blaine Finch asked the Judicial Council to study and make recommendations about House Bill 2529 relating to a presumption of equal parenting time. House Bill 2529 is identical to Senate Bill 257, both of which were heard during the 2018 legislative session. The Judicial Council accepted the study request and assigned it to the Family Law Advisory Committee. Copies of the bills are attached to this report at pages 9 and 10. A copy of the study request is attached at page 11.

BACKGROUND

Senator Steve Fitzgerald sponsored SB 257, which was introduced in the Senate and referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee on January 8, 2018. A hearing on the bill was held in the Senate Judiciary Committee on January 30, 2018. A group of ten representatives sponsored HB 2529, which was introduced in the House and referred to the House Judiciary Committee on January 23, 2018. The bill was heard in the House Judiciary Committee on February 6, 2018.

As noted earlier, HB 2529 and SB 257 are identical. The bills propose amendments to K.S.A. 23-3202, which deals with parenting plans. The existing statute provides that a parenting plan that has been agreed to by the parties is presumed to be in the best interests of the child. The presumption can be overcome, and the court can enter a different order, provided the court makes specific findings of fact stating why the parties' agreed parenting plan is not in the best interests of the child.

The bills propose two amendments to the current language of K.S.A. 23-3202, which would now be subsection (a). First, the presumption that an agreed parenting plan is in the best interests of the child may be overcome only by clear and convincing evidence. The second proposed change ties the court's specific findings of fact that an agreed plan is not in the best interests of the child to consideration of all relevant factors under K.S.A. 23-3203.

The bills propose a new subsection (b), which applies if the parties have not entered into an agreed parenting plan. The new language creates a presumption, which can be overcome only by clear and convincing evidence, that a court order providing for a child's equal or approximately equal time with each parent is in the best interests of the child. An order that deviates from equal time must contain specific findings of fact why equal time with each parent is not in the best interests of the child when considering the relevant factors under K.S.A. 23-3203.

When SB 257 was heard on January 30, 2018, nine conferees spoke in favor of the bill, and nine additional people submitted written testimony in support. Five conferees spoke in opposition to the bill, with four people submitting written testimony against the bill. At the hearing on HB 2529 on February 6, 2018, six conferees spoke in support, and nine people submitted written testimony in favor of the bill. A total of 14 conferees spoke against the bill, with eight submitting written testimony opposing the bill.

Neither the Senate Judiciary Committee nor the House Judiciary Committee took any further action on the bills after the hearings. In May 2018, Representative Finch submitted to the Judicial Council a request that the Council study and make recommendations regarding HB 2529. In the request, Representative Finch also asked the Council to consider the approach taken by Arizona, which includes the following language: "Consistent with the child's best interests . . . , the court shall adopt a parenting plan that provides for both parents to share legal decision-making regarding their child and that maximizes their respective parenting time. The court shall not prefer a parent's proposed plan because of the parent's or child's gender.”

When the Judicial Council met on June 1, 2018, it considered and accepted Representative Finch's study request and assigned the study to the Family Law Advisory Committee.

METHOD OF STUDY

DISCUSSION

Clear and Convincing Evidence

The Committee reviewed the bill's proposed changes relating to the standard of proof required to overcome the legal presumptions outlined in the statute. The bill's proposed amendments to K.S.A. 23-3202 would require clear and convincing evidence to overcome: 1) the existing presumption that an agreed parenting plan is in the best interests of the child; and 2) a new presumption in subsection (b) that a court order providing for a child's equal or approximately equal time with each parent is in the best interests of the child.

The Committee discussed the use of presumptions in the law. Presumptions serve to establish that something is true with no burden to produce evidence to prove that fact. The burden shifts to the party who wishes to overcome the presumption by producing evidence that the presumed fact is not true. Presumptions of law are time-saving shortcuts based on stereotypes, common sets of facts, and universally accepted notions. A common example is that when a child is born to a married couple, the husband is presumed to be the child's father.

The Committee also discussed the standards of proof required to overcome a legal presumption. Generally, in civil cases, a "preponderance of the evidence" is required to overcome a legal presumption. A "preponderance of the evidence" means evidence showing the fact is more probably true than not true. In criminal cases, the presumption that a defendant is innocent may be overcome only with evidence that proves the defendant's guilt "beyond a reasonable doubt." The language proposed in HB 2529 and SB 257 states the presumptions in subsections (a) and (b) can be overcome only by "clear and convincing evidence." This standard is somewhere between a preponderance of the evidence and beyond a reasonable doubt and has been described by the Kansas Supreme Court as evidence that shows "the truth of the facts asserted is highly probable" In re B.D.-Y., 286 Kan. 686, 187 P.3d 594 (2008).

Under current law, there are some civil proceedings that require clear and convincing evidence, such as establishing that a child is in need of care or that parental rights should be terminated. Use of the clear and convincing standard in family law originated with the United States Supreme Court case of Santosky v. Kramer, 455 U.S. 745 (1982), in which the court considered the appropriate standard of proof to be applied in a termination of parental rights proceeding. The court held that a preponderance of the evidence standard is insufficient when applied to a proceeding in which a person's fundamental liberty interest in parenting is not merely infringed, but ended. The Court also compared the termination of parental rights to a criminal proceeding in that the parent is being accused of wrongdoing and is facing the power of the state as his or her adversary. The Committee does not believe the division of parenting time between two parents rises to that standard.

The Committee discussed the application of a clear and convincing evidence standard to cases involving domestic violence. The bill contains no exceptions for these cases. However, domestic violence usually takes place in the home and, unless the case involves such serious injury that there are medical records, it would be nearly impossible for a victim to meet the heightened evidentiary standard. Testimonial evidence would not be sufficient.

Presumption of Equal Time

The Committee discussed the bills' proposed presumption that a court order providing for a child's equal or approximately equal time with each parent is in the best interests of the child. The Committee considered the proponents' written testimony. Some conferees testified generally that it is in the best interests of a child for parenting to be shared and to have both parents actively involved in the child's life. Other conferees related fact-specific cases in which a parent had to spend years and large sums of money to get parenting time increased. While the Committee empathizes with these parents, it does not agree that creating a new legal presumption is appropriate.

As noted above, legal presumptions are based on common sets of facts. There is no common set of facts when determining an optimum parenting time schedule for a family. Each family is unique, having different numbers and ages of children, work, school, and activity schedules, distances between parent's homes, and distances from the parents' homes to the children's schools. These are just a few of the myriad of issues that must be considered when crafting an effective parenting plan that is in the best interests of the child. Although the Committee agrees with the assertion that it is in the best interests of a child to have both parents involved in the child's life, best interests does not necessarily mean "equal or approximately equal." Equal time may not even be possible when considering the schedules and logistics involved in a certain case. Yet, the proposed presumption requires the court to presume that equal time is in the best interests of the child, with no proof that it is good for the children or that such a parenting time plan could be realistically executed under the facts and circumstances of a given case.

The Committee unanimously agrees that the current statute, which requires the court to apply the relevant factors in K.S.A. 23-3203 when determining a parenting plan that is in the best interests of the child, offers the court maximum flexibility to take each case's unique facts into consideration. The proposed presumption that equal time is in the best interests of the child infringes on the court's discretion to apply the relevant factors and make an independent determination.

The Committee discussed the contention that there have been cultural changes that justify changes in the law. The Committee agrees that there have been cultural changes over the last several decades. However, Kansas law reflects and is consistent with those changes. There is no preference for young children to reside with the mother, the so-called “tender years” doctrine. In fact, K.S.A. 23-3204 specifically provides: “Neither parent shall be considered to have a vested interest in the custody or residency of any child as against the other parent, regardless of the age of the child, and there shall be no presumption that it is in the best interests of any infant or young child to give custody or residency to the mother.” In the Committee members’ experience, fathers are awarded more parenting time than in years past, and mothers are awarded less.

The Committee believes the current Kansas statutes implement the best possible approach by listing 18 nonexclusive factors for the court to consider when determining what is in the best interests of each child. It is understandable that proponents who wished they would have been awarded equal parenting time think that their case would have been different if the judge were forced by law to reach a certain conclusion. But this new presumption would be no better than the old standards of every Wednesday and every other weekend, because it is another “one size fits all” approach. No single solution will work for all families, and it is better to impose no legal presumptions that limit the court’s exercise of discretion.

The Committee also considered the substance of the proponent’s complaints about individual cases. The Committee doesn’t think these stories are evidence of a statutory problem – they are more likely instances of the law being incorrectly applied. The Committee found that judges around the state are currently ordering shared parenting in cases in which it is reasonable under the circumstances. A judge who always orders parenting time based on guidelines meant to demonstrate minimum standards may need judicial education in family law issues. Although the Committee acknowledges there could be judges who sometimes or always order established minimum guidelines rather than doing the work of crafting an individual plan that better suits the family, the Committee does not agree with the proponents that this is a widespread problem. In addition, the Committee believes it is a problem that cannot be legislated away. Judges are human, and sometimes they make mistakes. Parties are human, and some will be unhappy regardless of the law or how the court applies the law to their case. The Committee is in agreement that imposing a “one size fits all” presumption to fix a problem that is only present in a small percentage of cases is the wrong approach. The current statutes afford the court the flexibility to order equal parenting time if that result is in the best interests of the child.

The Committee discussed concerns about unintended consequences that could result from the bills. In addition to the concerns noted earlier about cases involving domestic violence, the Committee discussed concerns about increased litigation and a reduced incentive for parties to work together to create an agreed parenting plan. The Committee also discussed that the bills do not mention how or if the new presumption would be applied in parentage cases. K.S.A. 23-2215, which applies to parenting plans in parentage cases, is different from the statute governing parenting plans under article 32 and does not refer to the factors in K.S.A. 23-3203. The Committee believes there are constitutional concerns with treating married and unmarried parents differently and believes these provisions should be harmonized. A panel of the Kansas Court of Appeals has applied the factors in a parentage action in an unpublished decision. In the Matter of Chance and Chance, No. 108,489, 2013 WL 1729272 (Kan. App. 2013). The application of a presumption of equal parenting time in a parentage action in which the child and father have not established a significant relationship is a possibility the proponents of the bill have not addressed.

As requested by Representative Finch, the Committee also discussed the Arizona approach, which does not impose a presumption regarding “equal” or “nearly equal” parenting time, but instead requires the court to maximize the parenting time of each parent. Although perhaps presenting problems lesser in scale than the language in HB 2529 and SB 257, this approach also has the potential to increase litigation and unnecessarily infringes on judicial discretion. The Committee does not support any statutory language that creates a preference or presumption that a certain quantity of parenting time is in the best interests of the child. A determination of a parenting plan that is in the best interests of the child is best reached through applying the statutory factors to the facts of each individual case.

RECOMMENDATION

The Committee has carefully considered the arguments for and against the amendments to K.S.A. 23-3202 contained in HB 2529 and SB 257 and concludes the proposed changes create more problems than they solve. Each case presents unique facts and circumstances and requires an individualized plan, which is the antithesis of a legal presumption. The current statutes provide courts with the flexibility to order equal parenting time if it is in the best interests of the child, and the Committee recommends against the passage of HB 2529 and SB 257.

Nancy Strouse, Executive Director
Kansas Judicial Council
301 SW 10th Avenue
Topeka, Kansas 66612

Dear Nancy:

I am writing to request Judicial Council study of a topic that arose during the consideration of legislation by the House Committee on Judiciary during the 2018 Session. After considering this bill, I believe that a more in-depth consideration of the issues raised by the legislation would be appropriate and desirable before advancing the legislation.

HB 2529 – Creating a presumption of child’s equal time with parents during court determination of legal custody, residency or parenting time

HB 2529 was introduced in 2018 by 10 individual legislators and was heard by the House Committee on Judiciary. Among other provisions, the bill would create a presumption, when parties have not entered into a parenting plan, that a determination of legal custody, residency, and parenting time providing for a child's equal or approximately equal time with each parent is in the best interests of the child. This presumption could be overcome only by clear and convincing evidence, and to make a different determination the court would be required to make specific findings of fact stating why equal or approximately equal time is not in the best interests of the child when considering all relevant factors required in statute.

The House Committee received extensive proponent, neutral, and opponent testimony at its hearing on HB 2529. One of the opponent conferees, the Hon. R. Wayne Lampson, speaking on behalf of the Kansas District Judges' Association, suggested that the House Committee, if it desired to advance the bill, consider adopting language similar to that recently adopted by Arizona instead of the language of the bill as introduced.

The Arizona language was added by that state's 2012 SB 1127 (attached) and stated, in relevant part: "Consistent with the child's best interests . . . , the court shall adopt a parenting plan that provides for both parents to share legal decision-making regarding their child and that maximizes their respective parenting time. The court shall not prefer a parent's proposed plan because of the parent's or child's gender."

I believe the Kansas Legislature and citizens of Kansas would benefit from the Judicial Council's study of and recommendation regarding the language of HB 2529 and whether it would be improved by modifying it to follow the approach taken by Arizona.

Please let me know if I can provide any further information or answer any questions regarding this request.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

30 POSSIBLE.

31       C. AN ORDER FOR SOLE LEGAL DECISION-MAKING DOES NOT ALLOW THE PARENT
32 DESIGNATED AS SOLE LEGAL DECISION-MAKER TO ALTER UNILATERALLY A COURT-ORDERED 33 PARENTING TIME PLAN.

34       D. A PARENT WHO IS NOT GRANTED SOLE OR JOINT LEGAL DECISION-MAKING IS 35 ENTITLED TO REASONABLE PARENTING TIME TO ENSURE THAT THE MINOR CHILD HAS 36 SUBSTANTIAL, FREQUENT, MEANINGFUL AND CONTINUING CONTACT WITH THE PARENT
37 UNLESS THE COURT FINDS, AFTER A HEARING, THAT PARENTING TIME WOULD ENDANGER 38 THE CHILD'S PHYSICAL, MENTAL, MORAL OR EMOTIONAL HEALTH.

39       Sec. 8. Section 25-403.02, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to
40 read:

41       25-403.02. Parenting plans

42       ~~A. Before an award is made granting joint custody, the parents shall~~ 43 ~~submit a proposed parenting plan that includes at least the following:~~

45 DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME, EACH PARENT MUST SUBMIT A PROPOSED 46 PARENTING PLAN.

1 B. CONSISTENT WITH THE CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS IN SECTION 25-403 AND
2 SECTIONS 25-403.03, 25-403.04 AND 25-403.05, THE COURT SHALL ADOPT A
3 PARENTING PLAN THAT PROVIDES FOR BOTH PARENTS TO SHARE LEGAL DECISION-MAKING
4 REGARDING THEIR CHILD AND THAT MAXIMIZES THEIR RESPECTIVE PARENTING TIME.
5 THE COURT SHALL NOT PREFER A PARENT'S PROPOSED PLAN BECAUSE OF THE PARENT'S 6 OR CHILD'S GENDER.

7 C. PARENTING PLANS SHALL INCLUDE AT LEAST THE FOLLOWING:

8 1. A DESIGNATION OF THE LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AS JOINT OR SOLE AS
9 DEFINED IN SECTION 25-401.

10 ~~1-~~ 2. Each parent's rights and responsibilities for the personal care

19 conciliation services or private counseling.

20 ~~4-~~ 6. A procedure for periodic review of the plan's terms by the 21 parents.

22 ~~5- A statement that the parties understand that joint custody does not~~

25 INCLUDING METHODS AND FREQUENCY.

26 ~~6-~~ 8. A statement that each party has read, understands and will 27 abide by the notification requirements of section 25-403.05, subsection B.

28 ~~B-~~ D. If the parents are unable to agree on any element to be 29 included in a parenting plan, the court shall determine that element. The 30 court may determine other factors that are necessary to promote and protect 31 the emotional and physical health of the child.

32 E. SHARED LEGAL DECISION-MAKING DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN EQUAL
33 PARENTING TIME.

34 Sec. 9. Section 25-403.03, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 35 read:

36 25-403.03. Domestic violence and child abuse

37 A. Notwithstanding subsection D of this section, joint ~~eustody~~ LEGAL 38 DECISION-MAKING shall not be awarded if the court makes a finding of the 39 existence of significant domestic violence pursuant to section 13-3601 or if 40 the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a 41 significant history of domestic violence.

42 B. The court shall consider evidence of domestic violence as being 43 contrary to the best interests of the child. The court shall consider the 44 safety and well-being of the child and of the victim of the act of domestic 45 violence to be of primary importance. The court shall consider a

1 perpetrator's history of causing or threatening to cause physical harm to 2 another person.

3 C. To determine if a person has committed an act of domestic violence
4 the court, subject to the rules of evidence, shall consider all relevant 5 factors including the following:

- 6 1. Findings from another court of competent jurisdiction.
- 7 2. Police reports.
- 8 3. Medical reports.
- 9 4. Child protective services records.
- 10 5. Domestic violence shelter records.
- 11 6. School records.
- 12 7. Witness testimony.

13 D. If the court determines that a parent who is seeking ~~custody~~ SOLE
14 OR JOINT LEGAL DECISION-MAKING has committed an act of domestic violence 15 against the other parent, there is a rebuttable presumption that an award of 16 ~~custody~~ SOLE OR JOINT LEGAL DECISION-MAKING to the parent who committed the 17 act of domestic violence is contrary to the child's best interests. This 18 presumption does not apply if both parents have committed an act of domestic 19 violence. For the purposes of this subsection, a person commits an act of 20 domestic violence if that person does any of the following:

- 21 1. Intentionally, knowingly or recklessly causes or attempts to cause 22 sexual assault or serious physical injury.
- 23 2. Places a person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious 24 physical injury to any person.
- 25 3. Engages in a pattern of behavior for which a court may issue an ex 26 parte order to protect the other parent who is seeking child custody or to 27 protect the child and the child's siblings.

28 E. To determine if the parent has rebutted the presumption the court
29 shall consider all of the following:

- 30 1. Whether the parent has demonstrated that being awarded sole ~~custody~~
31 or joint ~~physical~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or ~~legal-custody~~ SUBSTANTIALLY EQUAL
32 PARENTING TIME is in the child's best interests.
- 33 2. Whether the parent has successfully completed a batterer's 34 prevention program.
- 35 3. Whether the parent has successfully completed a program of alcohol 36 or drug abuse counseling, if the court determines that counseling is 37 appropriate.
- 38 4. Whether the parent has successfully completed a parenting class, if 39 the court determines that a parenting class is appropriate.
- 40 5. If the parent is on probation, parole or community supervision, 41 whether the parent is restrained by a protective order that was granted after 42 a hearing.
- 43 6. Whether the parent has committed any further acts of domestic 44 violence.

45 F. If the court finds that a parent has committed an act of domestic 46 violence, that parent has the burden of proving to the court's satisfaction

1 that parenting time will not endanger the child or significantly impair the 2 child's emotional development. If the parent meets this burden to the 3 court's satisfaction, the court shall place conditions on parenting time that
4 best protect the child and the other parent from further harm. The court 5 may:

6 1. Order that an exchange of the child must occur in a protected
7 setting as specified by the court.

8 2. Order that an agency specified by the court must supervise
9 parenting time. If the court allows a family or household member to 10 supervise parenting time, the court shall establish conditions that this 11 person must follow during parenting time.

12 3. Order the parent who committed the act of domestic violence to 13 attend and complete, to the court's satisfaction, a program of intervention
14 for perpetrators of domestic violence and any other counseling the court
15 orders.

16 4. Order the parent who committed the act of domestic violence to 17 abstain from possessing or consuming alcohol or controlled substances during 18 parenting time and for twenty-four hours before parenting time.

19 5. Order the parent who committed the act of domestic violence to pay
20 a fee ~~to the court to defray~~ FOR the costs of supervised parenting time.

21 6. Prohibit overnight parenting time.

22 7. Require a bond from the parent who committed the act of domestic 23 violence for the child's safe return.

24 8. Order that the address of the child and the other parent remain
25 confidential.

26 9. Impose any other condition that the court determines is necessary
27 to protect the child, the other parent and any other family or household 28 member.

29 G. The court shall not order joint counseling between a victim and the 30 perpetrator of domestic violence. The court may ~~refer a victim to~~ 31 ~~appropriate counseling and shall~~ provide a victim with written information
32 about available community resources related to domestic violence.

33 H. The court may request or order the services of the division of 34 children and family services in the department of economic security if the 35 court believes that a child may be the victim of child abuse or neglect as 36 defined in section 8-201.

37 I. In determining whether the absence or relocation of a parent shall 38 be weighed against that parent in determining ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING
39 or parenting time, the court may consider whether the absence or relocation
40 was caused by an act of domestic violence by the other parent.

41 Sec. 10. Section 25-403.04, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to
42 read:

43 25-403.04. Substance abuse

44 A. If the court determines that a parent HAS ABUSED DRUGS OR ALCOHOL
45 OR has been convicted of any drug offense under title 13, chapter 34 or any 46 violation of section 28-1381, 28-1382 or 28-1383 within twelve months before

1 the petition or the request for ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING
2 TIME is filed, there is a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint ~~custody~~
3 LEGAL DECISION-MAKING by that parent is not in the child's best interests.
4 In making this determination the court shall state its:

5 1. Findings of fact that support its determination that the parent
6 ABUSED DRUGS OR ALCOHOL OR was convicted of the offense.

7 2. Findings that the ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or parenting time
8 arrangement ordered by the court appropriately protects the child.

9 B. To determine if the person has rebutted the presumption, at a
10 minimum the court shall consider the following evidence:

11 1. The absence of any conviction of any other drug offense during the 12 previous five years.

13 2. Results of random drug testing for a six month period that indicate 14 that the person is not using drugs as proscribed by title 13, chapter 34.

15 3. RESULTS OF ALCOHOL OR DRUG SCREENING PROVIDED BY A FACILITY
16 APPROVED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SERVICES.

17 Sec. 11. Section 25-403.05, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to
18 read:

19 25-403.05. Sexual offenders; murderers; legal decision-making
20 and parenting time; notification of risk to child

21 A. Unless the court finds that there is no significant risk to the 22 child and states its reasons in writing, the court shall not grant a person
23 sole or joint ~~physical or legal custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING of a child or 24 unsupervised parenting time with a child if the person:

25 1. Is a registered sex offender.

26 2. Has been convicted of murder in the first degree and the victim of 27 the murder was the other parent of the child who is the subject of the order.
28 In making its finding, the court may consider, among other factors, the 29 following:

30 (a) Credible evidence that the convicted parent was a victim of 31 domestic violence, as defined in section 13-3601, committed by the murdered
32 parent.

33 (b) Testimony of an expert witness that the convicted parent suffered
34 trauma from abuse committed by the murdered parent.

35 B. A child's parent or custodian must immediately notify the other 36 parent or custodian if the parent or custodian knows that a convicted or 37 registered sex offender or a person who has been convicted of a dangerous 38 crime against children as defined in section 13-705 may have access to the 39 child. The parent or custodian must provide notice by first class mail,
40 return receipt requested, by electronic means to an electronic mail address
41 that the recipient provided to the parent or custodian for notification
42 purposes or by other communication accepted by the court.

43 Sec. 12. Section 25-403.07, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to
44 read:

45 25-403.07. Identification of a primary caretaker and public
46 assistance

1 The court may specify one parent as the primary caretaker of the child
2 and one home as the primary home of the child for the purposes of defining
3 eligibility for public assistance. This finding does not diminish the rights
4 of either parent and does not create a presumption for or against either
5 parent in a proceeding for the modification of a eustody LEGAL 6 DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME order.

7 Sec. 13. Section 25-403.08, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to
8 read:

9 25-403.08. Resources and fees

10 A. In a proceeding regarding sole eustody or joint eustody LEGAL 11 DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME, either party may request attorney fees,
12 costs and expert witness fees to enable the party with insufficient resources 13 to obtain adequate legal representation and to prepare evidence for the 14 hearing.

15 B. If the court finds there is a financial disparity between the 16 parties, the court may order payment of reasonable fees, expenses and costs
17 to allow adequate preparation.

18 Sec. 14. Section 25-403.09, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 19 read:

20 25-403.09. Child support

21 A. For any eustody PARENTING TIME order entered under this article, 22 the court shall determine an amount of child support in accordance with 23 section 25-320 and guidelines established pursuant to that section.

24 B. An award of joint eustody LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR A SUBSTANTIALLY
25 EQUAL PARENTING TIME PLAN does not diminish the responsibility of either 26 parent to provide for the support of the child.

27 Sec. 15. Section 25-404, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

28 25-404. Temporary orders

29 A. A party to a eustody LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AND PARENTING TIME
30 proceeding may move for a temporary eustody order. This motion must be
31 supported by pleadings as provided in section 25-411. The court may award
32 temporary eustody LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AND PARENTING TIME under the 33 standards of section 25-403 after a hearing, or, if there is no objection,
34 solely on the basis of the pleadings.

35 B. If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation is 36 dismissed, any temporary eustody LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME 37 order is vacated unless a parent or the child's custodian moves that the 38 proceeding continue as a eustody LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME
39 proceeding and the court finds, after a hearing, that the circumstances of 40 the parents and the best interest of the child require that a eustody LEGAL 41 DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME PLAN decree be issued.

42 C. If a eustody LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME proceeding
43 commenced in the absence of a petition for dissolution of marriage or legal 44 separation is dismissed, any temporary custody order thereby is vacated.

45 Sec. 16. Section 25-406, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

46 25-406. Investigations and reports

1 A. In contested ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AND PARENTING TIME
2 proceedings, and in other custody proceedings if a parent or the child's

4 concerning ~~custodial~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME arrangements for 5 the child. The investigation and report may be made by the court social 6 service agency, the staff of the juvenile court, the local probation or 7 welfare department, or a private person. The report must include a written 8 affirmation by the person completing the report that the person has met the 9 training requirements prescribed in subsection C.

10 B. If an investigation ~~or~~ AND report ~~is~~ ARE ordered pursuant to this 11 section or if the court appoints a family court advisor, the court shall 12 allocate cost based on the financial circumstances of both parties.

13 C. ~~Beginning on July 1, 2006,~~ The court shall require A COURT
14 APPOINTED ATTORNEY FOR A CHILD, A COURT APPOINTED ADVISOR OR any person who

29 subsection C if the training meets the minimum standards prescribed by the 30 domestic relations committee.

31 E. A physician who is licensed pursuant to title 32, chapter 13 or 17
32 is exempt from the training requirements prescribed in subsection C.

10 D. If the court finds that to protect the child's welfare, the record
11 of any interview, report, investigation, or testimony in a ~~custody~~ LEGAL
12 DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME proceeding should be kept secret, the court
13 may then make an appropriate order sealing the record.

14 Sec. 18. Section 25-408, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

15 25-408. Rights of each parent; parenting time; relocation of 16 child; exception; enforcement; access to records

17 ~~A. A parent who is not granted custody of the child is entitled to~~ 18 ~~reasonable parenting time rights to ensure that the minor child has frequent~~
19 ~~and continuing contact with the noncustodial parent unless the court finds,~~ 20 ~~after a hearing, that parenting time would endanger seriously the child's~~ 21 ~~physical, mental, moral or emotional health.~~

22 ~~B.~~ A. If by written agreement or court order both parents are 23 entitled to ~~custody~~ JOINT LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or UNSUPERVISED parenting
24 time and both parents reside in the state, at least sixty days' advance
25 written notice shall be provided to the other parent before a parent may do 26 either of the following:

- 27 1. Relocate the child outside the state.
- 28 2. Relocate the child more than one hundred miles within the state.

29 ~~C.~~ B. The notice required by this section shall be made by certified
30 mail, return receipt requested, or pursuant to the Arizona rules of family
31 law procedure. The court shall sanction a parent who, without good cause, 32 does not comply with the notification requirements of this subsection. The 33 court may impose a sanction that will affect ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or 34 parenting time only in accordance with the child's best interests.

35 ~~D.~~ C. Within thirty days after notice is made the nonmoving parent
36 may petition the court to prevent relocation of the child. After expiration 37 of this time any petition or other application to prevent relocation of the 38 child may be granted only on a showing of good cause. This subsection does 39 not prohibit a parent who is seeking to relocate the child from petitioning 40 the court for a hearing, on notice to the other parent, to determine the 41 appropriateness of a relocation that may adversely affect the other parent's
42 ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or parenting time rights.

43 ~~E.~~ D. Subsection ~~B.~~ A of this section does not apply if provision for 44 relocation of a child has been made by a court order or a written agreement 45 of the parties that is dated within one year of the proposed relocation of 46 the child.

1 ~~F~~ E. Pending the determination by the court of a petition or 2 application to prevent relocation of the child:

3 1. A parent with sole ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or a parent with 4 joint ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING and primary ~~physical-custody~~ RESIDENCE OF 5 A CHILD who is required by circumstances of health or safety or employment of 6 that parent or that parent's spouse to relocate in less than sixty days after 7 written notice has been given to the other parent may temporarily relocate
8 with the child.

9 2. A parent who shares joint ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING and 10 substantially equal ~~physical-custody~~ PARENTING TIME and who is required by 11 circumstances of health or safety or employment of that parent or that 12 parent's spouse to relocate in less than sixty days after written notice has 13 been given to the other parent may temporarily relocate with the child only 14 if both parents execute a written agreement to permit relocation of the 15 child.

16 ~~G~~ F. The court shall determine whether to allow the parent to 17 relocate the child in accordance with the child's best interests. The burden 18 of proving what is in the child's best interests is on the parent who is 19 seeking to relocate the child. To the extent practicable the court shall 20 also make appropriate arrangements to ensure the continuation of a meaningful 21 relationship between the child and both parents.

22 ~~H~~ G. The court shall not deviate from a provision of any parenting
23 plan or other written agreement by which the parents specifically have agreed 24 to allow or prohibit relocation of the child unless the court finds that the 25 provision is no longer in the child's best interests. There is a rebuttable
26 presumption that a provision from any parenting plan or other written 27 agreement is in the child's best interests.

28 ~~I~~ H. In determining the child's best interests the court shall 29 consider all relevant factors including:

- 30 1. The factors prescribed under section 25-403.
- 31 2. Whether the relocation is being made or opposed in good faith and 32 not to interfere with or to frustrate the relationship between the child and 33 the other parent or the other parent's right of access to the child.
- 34 3. The prospective advantage of the move for improving the general 35 quality of life for the custodial parent or for the child.
- 36 4. The likelihood that the parent with whom the child will reside
37 after the relocation will comply with parenting time orders.
- 38 5. Whether the relocation will allow a realistic opportunity for 39 parenting time with each parent.
- 40 6. The extent to which moving or not moving will affect the emotional, 41 physical or developmental needs of the child.
- 42 7. The motives of the parents and the validity of the reasons given 43 for moving or opposing the move including the extent to which either parent
44 may intend to gain a financial advantage regarding continuing child support 45 obligations.
- 46 8. The potential effect of relocation on the child's stability.

1       ~~I.~~ I. The court shall assess attorney fees and court costs against
2 either parent if the court finds that the parent has unreasonably denied,
3 restricted or interfered with court-ordered parenting time.

4       ~~K.~~ J. Pursuant to section 25-403.06, ~~the noncustodial~~ EACH parent is 5 entitled to have access to documents and other information about the child
6 unless the court finds that access would endanger seriously the child's or 7 ~~the custodial~~ A parent's physical, mental, moral or emotional health.

8       Sec. 19. Repeal

9       Section 25-409, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed.

11 amended by adding a new section 25-409, to read:

12       25-409. Third party rights

13       A. PURSUANT TO SECTION 25-402, SUBSECTION B, PARAGRAPH 2, A PERSON
14 OTHER THAN A LEGAL PARENT MAY PETITION THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR LEGAL 15 DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY OR PLACEMENT OF THE CHILD. THE COURT SHALL 16 SUMMARILY DENY A PETITION UNLESS IT FINDS THAT THE PETITIONER'S INITIAL 17 PLEADING ESTABLISHES THAT ALL OF THE FOLLOWING ARE TRUE:

18       1. THE PERSON FILING THE PETITION STANDS IN LOCO PARENTIS TO THE 19 CHILD.

20       2. IT WOULD BE SIGNIFICANTLY DETRIMENTAL TO THE CHILD TO REMAIN OR BE

23       3. A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION HAS NOT ENTERED OR APPROVED AN
24 ORDER CONCERNING LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME WITHIN ONE YEAR
25 BEFORE THE PERSON FILED A PETITION PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION, UNLESS THERE IS 26 REASON TO BELIEVE THE CHILD'S PRESENT ENVIRONMENT MAY SERIOUSLY ENDANGER THE 27 CHILD'S PHYSICAL, MENTAL, MORAL OR EMOTIONAL HEALTH.

28       4. ONE OF THE FOLLOWING APPLIES:

29       (a) ONE OF THE LEGAL PARENTS IS DECEASED.

30       (b) THE CHILD'S LEGAL PARENTS ARE NOT MARRIED TO EACH OTHER AT THE 31 TIME THE PETITION IS FILED.

32       (c) A PROCEEDING FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE OR FOR LEGAL SEPARATION
33 OF THE LEGAL PARENTS IS PENDING AT THE TIME THE PETITION IS FILED.

34       B. NOTWITHSTANDING SUBSECTION A OF THIS SECTION, IT IS A REBUTTABLE
35 PRESUMPTION THAT AWARDED LEGAL DECISION-MAKING TO A LEGAL PARENT SERVES THE 36 CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS BECAUSE OF THE PHYSICAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL AND EMOTIONAL
37 NEEDS OF THE CHILD TO BE REARED BY A LEGAL PARENT. A THIRD PARTY MAY REBUT
38 THIS PRESUMPTION ONLY WITH PROOF SHOWING BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE
39 THAT AWARDED LEGAL DECISION-MAKING TO A LEGAL PARENT IS NOT CONSISTENT WITH 40 THE CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS.

41       C. PURSUANT TO SECTION 25-402, SUBSECTION B, PARAGRAPH 2, A PERSON
42 OTHER THAN A LEGAL PARENT MAY PETITION THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR VISITATION WITH

45 AND THAT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING IS TRUE:

1           1. ONE OF THE LEGAL PARENTS IS DECEASED OR HAS BEEN MISSING AT LEAST 2 THREE MONTHS. FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS PARAGRAPH, A PARENT IS CONSIDERED TO
3 BE MISSING IF THE PARENT'S LOCATION HAS NOT BEEN DETERMINED AND THE PARENT
4 HAS BEEN REPORTED AS MISSING TO A LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY.

5           2. THE CHILD WAS BORN OUT OF WEDLOCK AND THE CHILD'S LEGAL PARENTS ARE 6 NOT MARRIED TO EACH OTHER AT THE TIME THE PETITION IS FILED.

7           3. FOR GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT VISITATION, THE MARRIAGE OF 8 THE PARENTS OF THE CHILD HAS BEEN DISSOLVED FOR AT LEAST THREE MONTHS.

9           4. FOR IN LOCO PARENTIS VISITATION, A PROCEEDING FOR DISSOLUTION OF 10 MARRIAGE OR FOR LEGAL SEPARATION OF THE LEGAL PARENTS IS PENDING AT THE TIME
11 THE PETITION IS FILED.

12           D. A PETITION FILED UNDER SUBSECTION A OR C OF THIS SECTION MUST BE 13 VERIFIED OR SUPPORTED BY AFFIDAVIT AND MUST INCLUDE DETAILED FACTS SUPPORTING 14 THE PETITIONER'S CLAIM. THE PETITIONER MUST ALSO PROVIDE NOTICE OF THIS 15 PROCEEDING, INCLUDING A COPY OF THE PETITION AND ANY AFFIDAVITS OR OTHER
16 ATTACHMENTS, AND SERVE THE NOTICE PURSUANT TO THE ARIZONA RULES OF FAMILY LAW
17 PROCEDURE TO ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

18           1. THE CHILD'S LEGAL PARENTS.

19           2. A THIRD PARTY WHO POSSESSES LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY OVER 20 THE CHILD OR VISITATION RIGHTS.

21           3. THE CHILD'S GUARDIAN OR GUARDIAN AD LITEM.

22           4. A PERSON OR AGENCY THAT POSSESSES PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF THE CHILD OR 23 CLAIMS LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY OR VISITATION RIGHTS CONCERNING THE 24 CHILD.

25           5. ANY OTHER PERSON OR AGENCY THAT HAS PREVIOUSLY APPEARED IN THE 26 ACTION.

27           E. IN DECIDING WHETHER TO GRANT VISITATION TO A THIRD PARTY, THE COURT
28 SHALL GIVE SPECIAL WEIGHT TO THE LEGAL PARENTS' OPINION OF WHAT SERVES THEIR 29 CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS AND CONSIDER ALL RELEVANT FACTORS INCLUDING:

30           1. THE HISTORICAL RELATIONSHIP, IF ANY, BETWEEN THE CHILD AND THE 31 PERSON SEEKING VISITATION.

32           2. THE MOTIVATION OF THE REQUESTING PARTY SEEKING VISITATION.

33           3. THE MOTIVATION OF THE PERSON OBJECTING TO VISITATION.

34           4. THE QUANTITY OF VISITATION TIME REQUESTED AND THE POTENTIAL ADVERSE 35 IMPACT THAT VISITATION WILL HAVE ON THE CHILD'S CUSTOMARY ACTIVITIES.

36           5. IF ONE OR BOTH OF THE CHILD'S PARENTS ARE DECEASED, THE BENEFIT IN 37 MAINTAINING AN EXTENDED FAMILY RELATIONSHIP.

38           F. IF LOGISTICALLY POSSIBLE AND APPROPRIATE, THE COURT SHALL ORDER
39 VISITATION BY A GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT IF THE CHILD IS RESIDING OR 40 SPENDING TIME WITH THE PARENT THROUGH WHOM THE GRANDPARENT OR 41 GREAT-GRANDPARENT CLAIMS A RIGHT OF ACCESS TO THE CHILD.

42           G. A GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT SEEKING VISITATION RIGHTS UNDER 43 THIS SECTION SHALL PETITION IN THE SAME ACTION IN WHICH THE FAMILY COURT
44 PREVIOUSLY DECIDED LEGAL DECISION-MAKING AND PARENTING TIME OR, IF NO SUCH 45 CASE EXISTED, BY SEPARATE PETITION IN THE COUNTY OF THE CHILD'S HOME STATE, 46 AS DEFINED IN SECTION 25-1002.

1 H. ALL VISITATION RIGHTS GRANTED UNDER THIS SECTION AUTOMATICALLY
2 TERMINATE IF THE CHILD IS ADOPTED OR PLACED FOR ADOPTION. IF THE CHILD IS
3 REMOVED FROM AN ADOPTIVE PLACEMENT, THE COURT MAY REINSTATE THE VISITATION
4 RIGHTS. THIS SUBSECTION DOES NOT APPLY IF THE CHILD IS ADOPTED BY THE SPOUSE
5 OF A NATURAL PARENT AFTER THE NATURAL PARENT REMARRIES.

6 Sec. 21. Section 25-410, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:
7 25-410. Judicial supervision

8 A. Except as otherwise agreed by the parties in writing at the time of 9 the ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME ORDER OR DIVORCE decree,
10 the ~~custodian~~ PARENT DESIGNATED AS SOLE LEGAL DECISION-MAKER may determine
11 the child's upbringing, including the child's education, CARE, health— care
12 and religious training, unless, on motion by the ~~noncustodial~~ OTHER parent, 13 the court, after a hearing, finds that in the absence of a specific 14 limitation of the ~~custodian's~~ PARENT DESIGNATED AS THE SOLE LEGAL 15 DECISION-MAKER'S authority, the child's physical health would be endangered
16 or the child's emotional development would be significantly impaired.

17 B. If either parent requests the order, or if all contestants agree to 18 the order, or if the court finds that in the absence of the order the child's 19 physical health would be endangered or the child's emotional development
20 would be significantly impaired, and if the court finds that the best
21 interests of the child would be served, the court shall order a local social 22 service agency to exercise continuing supervision over the case to assure 23 that the custodial or parenting time terms of the decree are carried out. At 24 the discretion of the court, reasonable fees for the supervision may be 25 charged to one or both parents, provided that the fees have been approved by 26 the supreme court.

27 Sec. 22. Section 25-411, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:
28 25-411. Modification of legal decision-making or parenting
29 time; affidavit; contents; military families

30 A. A person shall not make a motion to modify a ~~custody~~ LEGAL 31 DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME decree earlier than one year after its 32 date, unless the court permits it to be made on the basis of affidavits that 33 there is reason to believe the child's present environment may seriously
34 endanger the child's physical, mental, moral or emotional health. At any 35 time after a joint ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING order is entered, a parent
36 may petition the court for modification of the order on the basis of evidence
37 that domestic violence involving a violation of section 13-1201 or 13-1204,
38 spousal abuse or child abuse occurred since the entry of the joint ~~custody~~
39 LEGAL DECISION-MAKING order. Six months after a joint ~~custody~~ LEGAL 40 DECISION-MAKING order is entered, a parent may petition the court for 41 modification of the order based on the failure of the other parent to comply
42 with the provisions of the order. A motion or petition to modify ~~a-custody~~
43 AN order shall meet the requirements of this section. Except as otherwise 44 provided in this section, if a ~~custodial~~ parent is a member of the United 45 States armed forces, the court shall consider the terms of that parent's

1 military family care plan to determine what is in the child's best interest
2 during ~~the custodial~~ THAT parent's military deployment.

3 B. If the parent with whom the parent's child resides a majority of 4 the time receives temporary duty, deployment, activation or mobilization
5 orders from the United States military that involve moving a substantial
6 distance away from the parent's residence a court shall not enter a final
7 order modifying parental rights and responsibilities and parent-child contact
8 in an existing order until ninety days after the deployment ends, unless a 9 modification is agreed to by the deploying parent.

10 C. The court shall not consider a parent's absence caused by 11 deployment or mobilization or the potential for future deployment or 12 mobilization as the sole factor supporting a real, substantial and 13 unanticipated change in circumstances pursuant to this section.

14 D. On motion of a deploying or nondeploying, mobilizing or absent
15 military parent, the court, after a hearing, shall enter a temporary order 16 modifying parental rights and responsibilities or parent-child contact during 17 the period of deployment or mobilization if:

18 1. A military parent who has ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or 19 parenting time pursuant to an existing court order has received notice from 20 military leadership that the military parent will deploy or mobilize in the 21 near future.

22 2. The deployment or mobilization would have a material effect on the 23 military parent's ability to exercise parental rights and responsibilities or 24 parent-child contact.

25 E. On motion of a deploying parent, if reasonable advance notice is 26 given and good cause is shown, the court shall allow that parent to present 27 testimony and evidence by electronic means with respect to parenting time or 28 parent-child contact matters instituted pursuant to this section if the 29 deployment of that parent has a material effect on that parent's ability to 30 appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing. For the purposes of this 31 subsection, "electronic means" includes communication by telephone or video 32 teleconference.

33 F. The court shall hear motions for modification because of deployment
34 as expeditiously as possible.

35 G. If a military parent receives military temporary duty, deployment,
36 activation or mobilization orders that involve moving a substantial distance
37 away from the military parent's residence or that otherwise have a material 38 effect on the military parent's ability to exercise parenting time, at the 39 request of the military parent, for the duration of the military parent's 40 absence the court may delegate the military parent's parenting time, or a 41 portion of that time, to a child's family member, including a stepparent, or 42 to another person who is not the child's parent but who has a close and 43 substantial relationship to the minor child, if the court determines that is 44 in the child's best interest. The court shall not allow the delegation of 45 parenting time to a person who would be subject to limitations on parenting
46 time. The parties shall attempt to resolve disputes regarding delegation of

1 parenting time through the dispute resolution process specified in their
2 parenting plan, unless excused by the court for good cause shown. A court
3 order pursuant to this subsection does not establish separate rights to 4 parenting time for a person other than a parent.

5 H. All temporary modification orders pursuant to this section shall 6 include a specific transition schedule to facilitate a return to the 7 predeployment order within ten days after the deployment ends, taking into 8 consideration the child's best interests.

9 I. A ~~custody~~ decree or order that a court enters in contemplation of 10 or during the military deployment of a ~~custodial~~ parent outside of the 11 continental United States shall specifically reference the deployment and 12 include provisions governing the ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING
13 TIME ARRANGEMENTS, OR BOTH, of the minor child after the deployment ends.
14 Either parent may file a petition with the court after the deployment ends to 15 modify the decree or order, in compliance with subsection L of this section.
16 The court shall hold a hearing or conference on the petition within thirty 17 days after the petition is filed.

18 J. The court may modify an order granting or denying parenting time 19 rights whenever modification would serve the best interest of the child, but 20 the court shall not restrict a parent's parenting time rights unless it finds 21 that the parenting time would endanger seriously the child's physical,
22 mental, moral or emotional health.

23 K. If after a ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING or parenting time order is 24 in effect one of the parents is charged with a dangerous crime against 25 children as defined in section 13-705, child molestation as defined in 26 section 13-1410 or an act of domestic violence as prescribed in section 27 13-3601 in which the victim is a minor, the other parent may petition the 28 court for an expedited hearing. Pending the expedited hearing, the court may 29 suspend parenting time or change ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING ex parte.

30 L. To modify any type of ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING
31 TIME order a person shall submit an affidavit or verified petition setting 32 forth detailed facts supporting the requested modification and shall give 33 notice, together with a copy of the affidavit or verified petition, to other 34 parties to the proceeding, who may file opposing affidavits. The court shall 35 deny the motion unless it finds that adequate cause for hearing the motion is 36 established by the pleadings, in which case it shall set a date for hearing
37 on why the requested modification should not be granted.

38 M. The court shall assess attorney fees and costs against a party
39 seeking modification if the court finds that the modification action is 40 vexatious and constitutes harassment.

41 N. Subsection L of this section does not apply if the requested relief
42 is for the modification or clarification of ~~visitation~~ PARENTING TIME and not 43 for a change of ~~joint custody, joint legal custody, joint physical custody or~~ 44 ~~sole custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING.

45 Sec. 23. Section 25-413, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:
46 25-413. Domestic relations education and mediation fund; report

1 A. Each county treasurer shall establish a domestic relations
2 education and mediation fund consisting of monies received pursuant to 3 section 12-284, subsection C.

4 B. The presiding judge of the superior court shall use fund monies to 5 establish, maintain and enhance programs designed to educate persons about 6 impacts on children of dissolution of marriage, legal separation and 7 restructuring of families and programs for mediation of ~~visitation~~ PARENTING
8 TIME or ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING disputes under this chapter or chapter
9 6 of this title.

10 C. The county treasurer shall disburse monies from the fund only at 11 the direction of the presiding judge of the superior court.

12 D. On notice of the presiding judge, the county treasurer shall invest 13 monies in the fund and monies earned from investment shall be credited to the 14 fund.

15 E. Monies that are expended from the fund shall be used to supplement, 16 and not supplant, any state or county appropriations that would otherwise be 17 available for programs described in subsection B of this section.

18 F. On or before August 10 of each year, the county treasurer shall 19 submit a report to the presiding judge that shows the amount of monies in the 20 domestic relations education and mediation fund.

21 Sec. 24. Repeal

22 Section 25-415, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed.

23 Sec. 25. Title 25, chapter 4, article 1, Arizona Revised Statutes, is 24 amended by adding a new section 25-415, to read:

25 25-415. Sanctions for litigation misconduct

26 A. THE COURT SHALL SANCTION A LITIGANT FOR COSTS AND REASONABLE
27 ATTORNEY FEES INCURRED BY AN ADVERSE PARTY IF THE COURT FINDS THAT THE 28 LITIGANT HAS DONE ANY ONE OR MORE OF THE FOLLOWING:

29 1. KNOWINGLY PRESENTED A FALSE CLAIM UNDER SECTION 25-403, 25-403.03
30 OR 25-403.04 WITH KNOWLEDGE THAT THE CLAIM WAS FALSE.

31 2. KNOWINGLY ACCUSED AN ADVERSE PARTY OF MAKING A FALSE CLAIM UNDER 32 SECTION 25-403, 25-403.03 OR 25-403.04 WITH KNOWLEDGE THAT THE CLAIM WAS 33 ACTUALLY TRUE.

34 3. VIOLATED A COURT ORDER COMPELLING DISCLOSURE OR DISCOVERY UNDER 35 RULE 65 OF THE ARIZONA RULES OF FAMILY LAW PROCEDURE, UNLESS THE COURT FINDS
36 THAT THE FAILURE TO OBEY THE ORDER WAS SUBSTANTIALLY JUSTIFIED OR THAT OTHER 37 CIRCUMSTANCES MAKE AN AWARD OF EXPENSES UNJUST.

38 B. IF THE COURT MAKES A FINDING AGAINST ANY LITIGANT UNDER SUBSECTION
39 A OF THIS SECTION, IT MAY ALSO:

40 1. IMPOSE ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL SANCTIONS ON BEHALF OF AN AGGRIEVED
41 PARTY WHO CAN DEMONSTRATE ECONOMIC LOSS DIRECTLY ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE 42 LITIGANT'S MISCONDUCT.

43 2. INSTITUTE CIVIL CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS ON ITS OWN INITIATIVE OR ON 44 REQUEST OF AN AGGRIEVED PARTY, WITH PROPER NOTICE AND AN OPPORTUNITY TO BE 45 HEARD.

1           3. MODIFY LEGAL DECISION-MAKING OR PARENTING TIME IF THAT MODIFICATION
2 WOULD ALSO SERVE THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD.

3           C. FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, A FALSE CLAIM DOES NOT MEAN A
4 CLAIM THAT IS MERELY UNSUBSTANTIATED.

5           D. THIS SECTION DOES NOT PREVENT THE COURT FROM AWARDING COSTS AND 6 ATTORNEY FEES OR IMPOSING OTHER SANCTIONS IF AUTHORIZED ELSEWHERE BY STATE OR 7 FEDERAL LAW.

8           Sec. 26. Section 25-803, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

34 disputed matters of ~~custody~~ LEGAL DECISION-MAKING and parenting time.

35           Sec. 27. Section 25-1002, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to
36 read:

37           25-1002. Definitions
