Request for bill introductions

Chairman Patton called the meeting to order about 9:45 am.

Chairman Patton let the committee know he had a bill introduction and inquired if there were any others from the committee members.

Representative Patton moved and Representative Ralph seconded, a request to introduce a bill, 20rs9017. Representative Patton stated the bill was similar to the draft response to the COVID-19 discussed in the informational briefing the day before with some changes.

Following questions regarding sponsorship of the bill, Representative Patton responded he was introducing the bill on behalf of himself with input from others including leadership in both houses.

The Chairman resumed the motion.

Motion carried. Representative Carmichael requested his No vote be recorded in the minutes.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned about 9:55 am.
