

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 16, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Rep. Finney was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Lynn, Meyer and Poetter Parshall were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Meyer.

Prayer by Rep. Brubaker:

Almighty Lord God,
thank You for the opportunity to once again
come before You on behalf of our leaders.
In the Old Testament, when told he could ask for anything,
King Solomon requested wisdom and knowledge,
that he may lead his people.
God was pleased with this request and granted to him
the wisdom and knowledge to lead.
This wisdom was not of human wisdom,
but wisdom that comes from God.
Today we recognize that we need Your wisdom and knowledge—because You know the past, the present, and all that lies ahead in the future.
And, we acknowledge that to gain this wisdom and knowledge,
we must begin with fear, awe and respect for You.
I pray this for our leaders today in Your great Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Baker.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following words of Rep. Dodson are spread upon the Journal:

I rise to recognize the service of Richard B. Myers, who is departing as President of Kansas State University.

President Myers is unique in the history of the University. He graduated from Kansas State University in 1965. He earned a degree in mechanical engineering, and a commission as a Second Lieutenant through the ROTC program.

He joined the U.S. Air Force and rose through the ranks to become a Four-Star General, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and principal advisor to the President of the United States.

In honor of his exemplary military service to his country, on November 9, 2006, the Kansas Board of Regents and Kansas State University named the military science building Richard B. Myers Hall.

General Myers first served as the interim president from April to November 2016, and then as the fourteenth president of Kansas State University from November, 2016 to February, 2022.

Under his leadership, the University added and/or renovated 1.9 million square feet to its campuses, and K-State Athletics alone completed $98 million in new and renovated facilities. Importantly, university research and development reached a record high of $218.6 million.

Throughout his career, President Myers held critical positions in many aspects of national security. In 2009, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security selected the Kansas State University campus as the new home of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility (NBAF) and its construction was completed during his tenure. He brought the blue-ribbon study panel on biodefense to KSU at which time former senate majority leader Tom Daschle declared K-State and Manhattan, Kansas, to be “the Silicon Valley for biodefense.”

President Myers served as president through difficult and largely unprecedented times. The University had challenges in students finding their way into adulthood, in enrollment, and in obtaining resources. This was all under the conditions of the Covid-19 pandemic. His inspirational leadership was key to the university being able to successfully navigate through these challenges. He led Kansas State University in a way that made us all proud, even as other great institutions faltered. President Richard Myers and First Lady Mary Jo Myers served as co-chairs for the KSU Foundation Innovation and Inspiration Campaign, which raised $1.6 billion in private monies, surpassing the original goal by $600 million. This will greatly enhance opportunities for student success, facilities enhancements, faculty development, and support to programs. President Myers term as KSU president has benefitted not only the university, but Manhattan and the state of Kansas. He and First Lady Mary Jo reintroduced the meaning of family to KSU and to all of us as Kansans. He has earned a legacy as one of the great leaders of Kansas.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Woodard and Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal.

Rep. Woodard: Thank you, Mister Speaker!

Colleagues, I rise today in honor of the incredible work and dedication of Dale Seufferling. Dale is the president of the KU Endowment Association and earlier this year announced that he will be retiring later this summer.

Dale joined KU Endowment Association in 1981, over forty years ago when he began his work as the director of public affairs. Subsequently, he served in roles with increasing responsibility, including the director of Major Gifts, vice president for Development, and executive vice president before being named President in 2002.

During his tenure, Seuferling has been involved with three of the four major fundraising campaigns undertaken by KU Endowment, including the most recent, Far Above: The Campaign for Kansas, which raised more than $1.66 billion for the benefit of KU, transforming education for decades of future Jayhawks to come.

As a former student, student leader, university employee, and now a member of the KU Endowment Association team, I appreciate the work Dale, his organization, and his leadership have done to make the University of Kansas and the State of Kansas a better place.

Today, Dale is joined by his wife, Marianne Seuferling; his daughter, Tess Seuferling; colleagues Christi Hinkle and Laurie Comstock, and KU Chancellor Doug Girod.

Colleagues, please join me in thanking Dale for his forty years of service to KU Endowment Association, the University of Kansas, and the State of Kansas.

Rep. Ballard: Good morning! Thank you, Representative Woodard for including me. As Dale's State Representative, I want to thank him for his dedication to the University of Kansas.

As a member of the KU faculty and staff, I can speak firsthand about his commitment to all operations of the KU system, from Liberal Arts to KU Medical Hospital.

Under his leadership, the KU Endowment has become one of the top performers in terms of effectiveness, raising more money as a percentage of their operating costs than any other public institution nationwide. KU Endowment now has over 131,000 donors, 49% of them new from all 50 states and 59 countries.

Dale is also a great colleague to work with. He is personable, warm, caring, and always willing to help.

Thank you, Dale, you will be missed, and your shoes will be hard ones to fill.

Rep. Woodard presented Mr. Seuferling with a framed House certificate in honor of his many contributions to The University of Kansas.
