

Journal of the Senate

FIFTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, January 31, 2022, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Rick Wilborn.
The roll was called with 37 senators present.
Senators Hawk, Kloos and Steffen were excused.
Vice President Wilborn introduced Doug Henkle to deliver the invocation:

Father God, thank You for the weekend at home with friends and family. Thank You for the refreshment it brings to our hearts. Now we have returned to continue to conduct the business of the citizens of our beloved "Home on the Range". We have returned to this chamber, gathered uniquely in all of history, these particular Senators in this singular time and place.

Cause each member of this body to value these days together and the opportunity for relationships developed here, within the caucuses and across the aisle, in spite of differing perspectives regarding the matters at hand. Give these Senators an appreciation for the uniqueness of one another and for the different approaches to the legislation before them. In light of eternity, Father, their time here in this chamber is brief and, therefore, their choices, relationally as well as legislatively, matter.

Father, I thank You that You can be their standard. That You can be the mark toward which they strive. Often times we tend to allow others and our concern for their response to us to cause us to miss Your mark. I pray that Your standard would be the goal.

May Your will in each of us individually and collectively in the Kansas Senate, in these hours, be accomplished. In Jesus' Name, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Wilborn.
