FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, April 25, 2022, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

The Good Rewards Of Unity
Ecclesiastes 4:9, Romans 12:3-6a

Lord, God of Heaven and Earth, recognizing our need for unity, You told us in Ecclesiastes 4:9 that two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor. Lord, our desire is to prayerfully experience the promise of the good rewards as we labor here together.

After being away for a season, You have returned us to the labors that prayerfully will bring those rewards. You created us with a fundamental need for synergism, where the sum of what we accomplish united together as a team surpasses the sum of what we achieve working individually.

So move us Lord, as You warned us in Romans 12:3, to not think more highly of ourselves than we ought but to realize that no matter what our individual positions might be You've created us to need each other. And when You have finished with us, when we and the people we serve are enjoying the fruit of our labors, we'll know it was by Your Divine hand.

I come to You this morning, in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, or the premium tax liability imposed upon an insurance company pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, for each qualified development for each year of the credit period, in an amount equal to the federal tax credit allocated or allowed by the KHRC to such qualified development, except that there shall be no reduction in the credit allowable in the first year of the credit period due to the calculation in section 42(f)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(3) Tax credits may be issued to a qualified investor in the amount of a cash investment of up to the total amount that may be issued by the director under this subsection for the qualified housing project, or as provided in the agreement required by section 9, and amendments thereto. Project builders or developers may apply to the director each year for tax credits for additional units or phases of a project. Qualified investors may be issued tax credits for cash investments in multiple qualified housing projects. Project builders or developers may apply and be approved for multiple qualified housing projects in the same tax year.

This interest may be transferred to any person whether or not such person is then a qualified investor and be claimed by the transferee as a credit against the transferee's Kansas tax liability in the same manner as the transferor beginning in the year the credit is transferred. The credit may be carried forward as permitted by subsection (a). No person shall be entitled to a refund for any interest on such tax credit that may be created under this section. Only the full amount of the tax credit for any one qualified housing project investment may be transferred and may only be transferred one time. A credit acquired by transfer shall be subject to the limitations prescribed in this section. (b) At the end of such 120-day period, if the project is still not in substantial compliance, the director shall send a notice of loss of designation to the project builder or developer, the secretary of revenue and all known qualified investors in the project. Loss of designation of a qualified housing project shall preclude the issuance of any additional tax credits with respect to the project, and the director shall not approve any subsequent application for such project as a qualified housing project. Upon loss of the designation as a qualified housing project, the project builder or developer shall repay any tax credits such taxpayer has claimed.

(c) Qualified investors other than the project builder or developer who have lawfully made a cash investment in a qualified housing project approved by the director shall not have tax credits disallowed solely due to the project losing its designation as a qualified housing project under this act.

New Sec. 12. ## SPECIAL REMARKS

I want to extend my personal congratulations to the 2021-2022 University of Kansas men's basketball team for their outstanding season and for winning the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. Earlier in the season, the team were Big 12 Regular Season Co-Champions, tying with Baylor for the best conference record, and won the Big 12 Championship tournament in Kansas City, defeating Texas Tech. This is Head Coach Bill Self's 2nd NCAA tournament win – and my second time to honor a KU men's basketball team in the Senate...I was here to honor the 2008 Champions. I'm proud to be the Senator who represents the 2nd District that includes Allen Field House, but also one who graduated from, taught, and worked at KU and who lives in the house at 11th and Ohio built by E.H.S. Bailey. Bailey, a chemistry professor suggested to colleagues on a train ride back to Lawrence in 1886 that the University needed a rousing yell; they settled on "Rah, Rah, Jayhawk, Go KU". When "Rock Chalk" replaced "Rah Rah" a few years later, Professor Bailey gave the geology department credit for the change. Thanks to the coaches and players for coming to Topeka to let us help continue your championship celebration; April 25, 2022 is KU Men's Basketball National Championship Victory Day. And thanks for all the opportunities you have given us this year to together yell out: ROCK CHALK, JAYHAWK GO KU!—MARCI FRANCISCO
