

Rep Croft,

The Ad Astra plan is a slap in the face of fair representation and an obvious ploy to align the congressional districts in favor of the Republican party. I'm not sure if you have talked yourself into the position that this is the best option for everyone in Kansas, or if you simply don't care and have decided that party political advantage is your goal.

Please, do better.

Michael Whitney
Overland Park