

2021 Kansas Statutes

18-1,103. Wilson. The county of Wilson is bounded as follows: Commencing at the southeast corner of the county of Woodson; thence south on section line between the second and third tiers of sections, to the sixth standard parallel; thence west with said sixth standard parallel twenty-four miles; thence north, to the southwest corner of the county of Woodson; thence east with the south line of the county of Woodson, to the place of beginning.

History: G.S. 1868, ch. 24, § 78; October 31; R.S. 1923, 18-1,103.