

To the Senate Public Health and Welfare Committee:

My testimony will state that I support this bill since medical procedures must always be subject to the decision of the individual. I am a lawyer now but I was a nurse for some time; the only places where medical procedures are forced are the Soviet Union and Russia, and other dictatorships. We are American citizens and we consent to our governance, we do not submit to it. More along these lines...

Kathy Brown, Esq.