

SESSION OF 2023

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 2069

As Recommended by House Committee on Corrections and Juvenile Justice

Brief*

HB 2069 would amend a statute governing parole, conditional release, and postrelease supervision to specify that the service of postrelease supervision time shall not toll, except as provided in the statute governing violations of conditions of release.

Background

The bill was introduced by the House Committee on Corrections and Juvenile Justice at the request of a representative of the Kansas Sentencing Commission.

House Committee on Corrections and Juvenile Justice

In the House Committee hearing on January 23, 2023, representatives of the Kansas Sentencing Commission and the Kansas Department of Corrections (KDOC) testified as proponents of the bill, stating the bill would clarify how time spent in jail should be credited when a person is an alleged postrelease supervision violator who has been arrested on a KDOC warrant and at the same time is awaiting trial on new criminal charges.

No other testimony was provided.

*Supplemental notes are prepared by the Legislative Research Department and do not express legislative intent. The supplemental note and fiscal note for this bill may be accessed on the Internet at <http://www.kslegislature.org>

Fiscal Information

According to the fiscal note prepared by the Division of Budget on the bill, the Kansas Sentencing Commission indicates the bill could result in a need for additional prison beds, but the fiscal effect cannot be determined. The Office of Judicial Administration and KDOC indicate the bill would have no fiscal effect on their agencies. Any fiscal effect associated with enactment of the bill is not reflected in The FY 2024 Governor's Budget Report.
